

was cut that Dr. P'ue undertook his experiment. The physicians for the Commonwealth testified that the vein was cut.

COULD NOT REPRODUCE BLOWS.

"The medical examiner and experts testified that this vein had been cut," de-newspapers, containing accounts of the day's arguments before the Supreme Court, Tucker carried them back to his cell, and spent the evening in reading them through.

Mrs. Tucker has not visited her son during the past few days. She is expected to visit the jail building to-day.

SEN. PLATT SUED GIRL'S FATHER BY MAE WOOD STOPS WEDDING

d Hears of Bachelor Dinner, Investigates, and Recalls All Invitations to Ceremony.

YOUNG MAN DISAPPEARS

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 7.—Although the invitations were sent out for her wedding, the townswomen prepared and arrangements made for the funeral of Miss Mary Ann, the true daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Albee Barker of Portland, have received. The invitations and announced that her wedding to Philip Dechast of Middletown will not take place.

Dechast invited a number of friends to a bachelor dinner at a well known resort in the city, and the guests were, it is said, there was much hilarity.

At the dinner, which was given in honor to the ears of Mr. Butler, who investigated the case of the Barker-Karpis gang, the invitations, several hundred in number, were distributed to the guests. The guests, which will be returned. She had been very popular. Dechast is also well known in the city and his wife and her whereabouts are unknown.

BOSTON MAN DROWNED.
WIKES-BARRE, Sept. 7.—Harry Merchant, a 25-year-old son of a Boston, fell from a towboat and was drowned.

Sept. 16th

*MORE NEWS
TOMORROW*

[illegible]

le Palace

Genl. Mgr.

ing began in this city as a
ne of our successful men, arge stores in this city for
of the local trade.

long service with one of
has earned his prominence

Policy

PROHIBITED—not only

ED that no exorbitant
e better grade of goods.
ost exclusive merchan-
ice level is absolutely

is our constant aim. We are, in delivery of goods, the watchword of the establishment.

SECOND TO NONE.

establish in
take its place

